

The American Corgi Club of America (ACCA)

Constitution

Article I- Name and Objectives

Section 1. The name of the club shall be The American Corgi Club of America, hereby referred to as the Club or ACCA.

Section 2. The objectives of the club shall be:

- a) To encourage and promote quality in the breeding and development of pure-bred American Corgis and to do all possible to develop a breed with distinct characteristics and natural perfection.
- b) To urge members and breeders to accept the standard of the breed as approved by ACCA as the only standard of excellence by which American Corgis shall be judged.
- c) To do all in its power to protect and advance the interests of the breed and to work toward all goals necessary for future breed recognition by the American Kennel Club and the United Kennel Club.
- d) To work toward the development competition at dog shows, herding trials, obedience trials, agility trials, and other performance events and club activities.
- e) To operate and maintain a Registry for the purpose of keeping a stud book of the American Corgi that is at present open and to vet the quality and pedigrees of dogs applying for registration with ACCA
- f) To maintain a database of sufficient duration and quality to make future recognition by the American Kennel Club and United Kennel Club possible.

Section 3. The club shall not be operated or conducted for profit and no part of any profits, or remainder of any dues or donations to the club, shall inure to the benefit of any member or individual.

Section 4. The members of the club shall adopt and may from time to time revise such bylaws as may be required to carry out these objectives.
